FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dr. John Hower has returned to the Montana State University geology faculty after an assignment as an assistant professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology last year, according to Dr. Fred S. Honkala, department chairman.

Dr. Hower, who returns to MSU as an associate professor, served on the MSU faculty as an assistant professor from 1957 to 1960. He was a research engineer at Stanolind Research Center from 1955 to 57.

The geologist holds a B. A. degree from Syracuse University and M. A. and Ph. D. degrees from Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.
